

Haut de Poujeaux

Haut-Médoc

*We can find in this wine the generosity, the elegance and the charm of Poujeaux.
The fruit and suppleness dominate this wine which is pleasant to drink young*

HISTORY AND LOCATION : If the name of Château Poujeaux only appeared in 1806, « the soil of Poujeaux » has been known since the Middle Ages. Successively, seignory depending of Latour St Mambert - future Ch. Latour - dependancy of Ch. Beychevelle in the XVIIIth century, owned by the Theil family from 1921 to 2008, it was recently acquired by the Cuvelier family.

At the north-east of Château Poujeaux vineyard, in the city of Lamarque and at the west of the city of Moulis.

VINEYARD AREA : 4 hectares in Haut-Médoc out of the total 68 hectares

SOIL : Gunzian gravels

GRAPE VARIETIES : 45% Cabernet Sauvignon, 55% Merlot

Age of the vines: 20

VINIFICATION: Uncrushed grapes are vinified plot by plot in small wooden, concrete and stainless steel vats.

AGEING: During one year, aged in French oak barrels of 2 and 3 wines.

PRODUCTION: About 20,000 bottles per year

Cru bourgeois Exceptionnel

Member of the union des Grands Crus

Since January 2008 estate owned by the Cuvelier family

Also owners of Clos Fourtet

